BENEFITS TO THE EMPLOYER

Involvement in Team BC Mission Staff is a significant commitment and requires the support of each member's employer. This is a unique professional development opportunity where employers can feel confident their employees will develop strengths and skills to enhance their current work environment and ultimately benefit an organization or company's bottom line.

SKILLS DEVELOPMENT

TEAMWORK

Mission Staff will work closely with a team of 25 fellow Mission Staff in an intense, demanding environment, doing what they can to help Team BC's athletes, coaches, and managers achieve optimal performances and ensure exceptional experiences. The skills required to work cohesively and effectively within the team are integral to the overall success of Team BC.

NETWORKING & LEADERSHIP

Mission Staff will meet new experts, extend their networks, and make valuable contacts in the BC sport and recreation system. The opportunities to network with other provincial representatives is an added benefit as provinces share "best practices" throughout the Games cycle.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Mission Staff will be exposed to unique technologies and complex immediate information results systems, developing new skills and expertise during their time with Team BC.

INSPIRES EXCELLENCE

Mission Staff will experience the power of initiative and the pride and satisfaction that comes from contributing to the achievements of Team BC. Employees will return to work with increased motivation, enhanced creativity and new ideas, strengthened commitment, and greater overall performance in the workplace.

ABOUT THE CANADA GAMES

The Canada Games brings together more than 2,000 able-bodied athletes and athletes with physical and intellectual disabilities for the largest amateur multi-sport event in the country. Alternating between winter and summer, they span over 30 different sports to showcase the very best in Canadian sport and spirit. The Games are held under the stewardship of the Canada Games Council who provide continuity, leadership and support. We're here to foster ongoing partnerships and ensure the Games leave an enduring legacy on communities from coast to coast to coast.
